SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, thank you, Mr. President, and members of the body, as we mentioned in the discussion with Senator Hohenstein, what this bill does essentially is...has established is this revolving fund which, in essence, is already being done. It doesn't...it doesn't mean any new expenditures by the state, it just actually provides the statutory authority for this fund to exist and the different agencies that give recognition to their employees, help contribute to the expenditures for these funds which the Department of Personnel administers. Thank you.
